So you want to show a movie via streaming, DVD or digital copy at school …

Are you going to show the movie to anyone other than your family or a small group of your friends?

Yes	NO
	Are you going to show the movie in a place that is open to anyone other than your family or a small group of your friends (e.g. a classroom or the auditorium, gym, media center, or bus)?
	Yes | NO →

Go: Your showing is not a public performance and you do not need a public performance license.

Caution: Your showing is a "public performance".

Will you be showing the movie as part of live, face-to-face teaching activities in a classroom or similar place devoted to instruction? Do you have a legitimate copy? Is the movie aligned to the common core standards? Is the movie grade level and age appropriate as defined by Request for Prior Approval of Digital Media Broadcast? Has the required form been submitted and signed by administration?

NO	Yes →

Did the movie come with express license specifically authorizing you to show the movie in manner intended?

NO	Yes →

Is the movie in public domain?

NO	Yes →

Go: Your showing falls within one of the applicable exceptions and you do not need a separate public performance license.

STOP: DO NOT SHOW THE VIDEO; YOU NEED A PUBLIC PERFORMANCE LICENSE.